MAGAZINE FEATURES THE NEWS SCIMITAR DAILY HOME HELPS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE CONDENSED MILK

cery cat. Here is a hig coconut shell rule of the best condensed milk. It will taste very good in your coffee, for it is nice and sweet."

and allowed to stand in close proximi-ty to the warehouses of F. Perlman and lo., 452-476 North Manassas street, junk dealers, which was ignited Monday afternoon by sparks from a rall-road switch engine, was responsible for the fire which practically destroyed the

WHISKEY FOR

New Alcoholic Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With

Latest Scientific Remedies

Used and Indorsed by European and American Army

Surgeons to Cut Short a

Cold and Prevent Complica-

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price

While You Wait at Counter

If Relief Does Not Come

Within Two Minutes.

Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

COLDS AND FLU

BETTER THAN

" said Uncle Wiggily

BY HOWARD R. GARIS.

with its purple blossoms.

Well, the animal folk use this milk, and in winter, when there aren't any nilkweeds growing, they use con
"That was too bad," spoke the gro-

Use Cuticura to Keep our Hair from Falling this advice to men who are losing their hair because of dandruff and scalp irritation. At night rub Cuti cura Ointment into the scalp. Next morning shampoo with Cuticura Soap and hot water. A clean, healthy scalp means good hair.

Cuticura Talcum is an antiseptic, prophy-actic, soothing dusting powder of delicate, ascinating fragrance. 25c. everywhere.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE

Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor

more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among drugsists as bite-phosphate, which is inexpensive and sold by Washburn-Lyle in Memphis, and most all drugsists, under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitto-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which hearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale checks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION—Although bitro-phosphate

seath. Nervousness, sleepleastiess and ack of energy, which nearly always ack of energy, which nearly always becompany excessive themess, soon isappear, dull eyes become bright, and sale cheeks glow with the bloom of the fire department, tusseled with the figure of the fire which practically destroyed the sack of the fire department, tusseled with the fire which practically destroyed the sack of the fire which practically destroyed the sack of the is unsurpassed for relieving nervous-ness, it should not, owing to its remark-able flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to 1 at on fiesh.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

thing about us and is probably the mos dandruff, excess o'l and dirt; can easily in a cup of hot water. This makes I full cup of shampoo liquid-enough re it is easy to apply it to all the hair in stead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather, Rinaing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After canthrox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleas

Unhealthy Fatness Shortens | Delightful Taste, Immediate Life. Reduce Weight

Would you like to reduce your weight 10 to 60, or more, pounds in a simple, safe, comfortable way! Do you want to be healthier, to look younger, to be sprightly, to be more efficient, to possess a good fig-ure without wrinkles or flabbiness? Then stop harmful drugging; do not follow starvation diet or tedious exercising, but adopt the delightful, guaranteed, korein system. Stand by your window or in the

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the Two-Minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically indersed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough cure they have ever tried.

All drug stores are new supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold, is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal, and tell him to serve you a teaspoonful with four reappoonfuls of water in a ginse. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved. open air each morning and evening, taking deep breaths. Use oil of korein and follow other simple directions of the system.

You will reduce your weight, or receive a forfeiture in cash under $100 guarantee. Get a small box of cil of korein (in capsules), now sold in drug stores at lowest before-war price, or write to Korein Company, NB-69, Station F, New York City, for free book. "Reduce Weight Happilly." Amaze everybody by attractive figure, vigorous health and personality. Show others this adv"t

UNCLE WIGGILY Belgium Under the German Heel WHO'S TO BLAME

etore in half a coconut shell instead of a the can "Well, what can I do for you this morning. Uncle Wiggily" asked the groscry cat, rubbing his paws as the bunny rabbit gentleman hopped into

Meanwhile, in the midst of all these accertainties and the anxieties, the egation continued to be througed with and so constantly expressed that I was often embarrassed by it. All the officials, all the notables of the city, all our friends, came and it was beadtiful and touching, but no expresion was more so than the call of Cardinal Mercier. He came Thursday afternoon at teatime, tall, majestic, with the simplicity of the truly great—such blue eyes of virtue and lefty courage! He was accompanied by the Reverend Pere Rutten, who were the white robe of a Dominican father, back in Belgium again after many adventures; I had crossed the sea with birn on my return from America in 1915. His eminence expressed sorrow, and showed virtue and lefty courage! He was accompanied by the Reverend Pere Ruiten, who were the white robe of a Dominican father, back in Beigium again after many adventures; I had crossed the sea with birn on my return from America in 1915. His eminence expressed sorrow, and showed sorrow at our going. He spoke with beautiful appreciation of America and what America had done for Beigium and said that Beigium had lost her "stay and support"—'I. Amerique—ia force, Fautorite d'une grande nation.' America—the force, the authority of a great nation.' His voice was vibrant with emotion; he was still a moment and bowed his gray head.

I told him after the war he would have to make a voyage to America.

Von Bissing Old and Feeble.

have to make a voyage to America where he was so much loved and ad-mired, and when I related how Protesant dergymen and Jewish rabble had united with priests of his own faith to praise his courage and extol his particular, he looked at me in astonishment. He said he was too old to undertailed.

WAREHOUSE IS BURNED:

LOSS PLACED AT $20,000

That evening had another, a very urgent telegram from the department of state ordering me to leave at once. There was another telegram that evening from Liege, with shocking news; Heingartner, our consul there, had died suddenly of heart failure, and I sent Cruser at once to Liege to close the consulate.

diate

D.

Heingartner, our consul there, had died suddenly of heart failure, and I send Cruger at once to Liege to close the Cruger at once the Liege at the train would be ready for the Cruger and over in that most affecting of farewells.

At prevoir—et blentot!"

All revoir—et blentot!"

All rev

stood there immobile, at at-l thought an instant, then the solution liashed through if, the only advantage which splication of Belgian time and

Von Bissing Old and Feeble.

The old governor-general was feeble and haggard and looked such older; he walked stiffly and with difficulty, but he and his frail, siender little baroness smiled and received me cordially. They had a young son, a lad of 15 wearing the cadet uniform of some military training school and already clicking his heels with a sharp report and saluting with the best of them. Count Ortenberg and several other members of the general's staff were there, and two guests, one of whom it was whispered to me was a great doctor of divinity and famous German theologian, whose name I did not learn. He was an enormous superman with a bristling belligerent pompadour, great glistening spectacles, a high yawning collar, a frock coat that widened gradually from his narrow shoulders to itswide skirts below, the whole terminating at the floor in boots with glistening spatent-leather tips.

The famous theologian was seated at the baroness's right at luncheon, and lat her left, the governor-general in

On Priday morning—we counted those last days as a prisoner might—Gregory arrived early to say that Reith had told him that the C. R. B. could not go out until the sixth of April, a week hence. I sent Rudock at once to tell Von Molike that if the C. R. B. did not go on Monday I should not go that they might do as they pleased. I would not go before the C. R. B.

Then, Lancken sent to know if I could receive him at 11 o'clock; then he postponed the visit until afternoon and something, some prescience, know not what, told me that he was leaving on one of those trips to Berlin. At 5 o'clock that afterneon, scrupulously groomed as ever and smart in the light builsh-gray uniform that so well set off his handsome figure, wearing side arms, he came to make his adleux; he was going to Berlin that night—to be gone a week.

We had tea and when he and my wife and I had chatted for a while, he began to discuss the plans for our departure, beginning with the statement that Sherman, our vice-consul at Antwerp, might be detained, as having been too pro-English, but I was able to persuade him to forego that measure—Then he said that my train would he ready for Monday, but—the usualisticities but he would not go only the sixth, because Gregory had fixed that alway well." I said, "then I shall net go until the sixth."

"Very well." I said, "then I shall net go until the sixth."

"Very well." I said, "then I shall net go until the sixth."

"Very well." I said, "then I shall net go until the sixth."

"Very well." I said, "then I shall net go until the sixth."

"Very well, let them do anything."

"Very well, let them do anything."

It epiled: "I will not go first, but last. He said that it would not be responsible for the millitary, they might do anything."

"Very well, let them do anything."

I replied: "I will not go first, but last. He said that it would not be very well."

he looked up in surprise; that would make treuble, he said: he would not be responsible for the military, they might do anything.

"Very well, let them do anything," I replied: "I will not go first, but last. He said that it would be very difficult to change the arrangements and to send the C. R. H. Monday; the military might insist on their going into quarantine; there were difficulties—of all sorts.

"That is a grave decision," he said solemnly, "And you would accept all the consequences of it?"

"I do not know what you mean by 'the consequences of it?"

"I do not know what you mean by 'the consequences." I replied, "but let them be as grave as they will—imprison me, sheet me in the Grand place—so be it; I accept them I will not leave first. With us the captain leaves the bridge only after all the others.

He promised to do all he could, and again expressed regret at seeing me go. He said he thought we should meet again soon, that the war was nearly over.

"Perhaps at the peace congress," he added.

The C. R. B. Begins to Leave.

That evening had another, a very urgent telegram from the department of state ordering me to leave at once. There was snother telegram that evening from Liege, with shocking news; Heingartner, our consul there, had died suddenly of heart failure, and I sent cruser at once to Liege to close the consulate.

But that hight the seven C. R. B.

But that hight the seven C. R. B.

Will-will you marry me?"

these words had not been born; the thought of them in her, at least, was still undreamed of! Now—?

She was not naturally coquettish, it was not in her to toy with anything she really wanted. She might flot want what she wanted for long, but while the impulse was on her she could want with all her strength. And, first, it would have pleased Estreida to subjugate Freddie. She had wanted to see him swept from his feet by the Ministive power that was here. It was to be her triumph. But now she was caught in her own-toils. His flame had kindled her. Her temperament was aroused. At last she was no more steady than her victim. And so—in the instant of silence that followed his question, her que word in answer to it fell deeply, inevitably.

"Yes, she said.

And then—and not until then—she was back in his arms.

Poor Freddie." That wonderful first love kiss of his to be laid on the shrine where so many worshipers had left their offerings before him! Not that there ever had been danger, as Estreida's father had judged rightly, that his daughter would make the supreme mistake. No; she was not generous enough. But Freddie's lips were not the first to press her lips; not by many score. And Freddie's hands clinging to her hands felt much the same to her as many other hands had felt.

"I love you." I love you, he was whispering to her over and over again.

They sat in the hammock now. His two arms were close about her; his cheek against her cheek. He felt like fire, yet his fingers were like ice.

"I love you," he whispered again."

cheek against her cheek. He feit like free yet his fingera were like ice.

"I love you," he whispered again. "My wonderful—wonderful gir! Ohsweetheart—I love you so! Say you love me. Say it," he pleaded.

She was still. Her trump card was always silence. Her silences seemed to mean more than she really could feel. Yet now she was truly silrred—stirred to the depths, yet—inarticulate. "Sweetheart—say you love me," he and, for their sake, fearing a demonstration, I hastily withdrew and ranback to the carriage. I bade Lambert and then, the last, Villalobar, goodbye. He presented my wife with the bouquet of forget-me-nots he had brought and handed her into the train. The Baron von Falkenhausen mounted the steps; Von Moltke, who had been so kind, who had so admirably made all the perfect arrangements, stood at the salute. I climbed aboard. The train was moving.

THE END OF THE SERIES.

Daily Recipes

Onions Madaleine.

Select large Bermuda onions. Feel and bake in a low pan with a tiny bit of water till soft but still holding their form. With great care cut out and remove the innermost part. Chop to a fineness and add any cold meat minced, a fow capers also chopped and some dry bread crumbs salted and peppered and moistened with a spoonful of milk Stir all together and fill the cases again. Add a bit of butter to the top and bake slowly for 10 minutes.

Cabbare Salad.

Cabbage Salad.

Equal parts of shredded cabbage and ly cut celery, one sweet red pepper pimento mayonnaise dressing; mix cabbage, celery and chopped pimento together; put mayonnaise over top when serving. A few chopped nuts sprinkled over mayonnaise may be added if de-

Six medium sized beers, cook until tender, skin and put in vinegar until ready for use. Take out center to make cup shape, cut fine what is taken out and add one-cucumber and six pieces of celery cut up; mix with mayonnaise and fill beets. Garnish each plate with

25555555555555555555555 Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the readymade kind. Easily done. generalessersersers

If you combined the curative proper tles of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough ayrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2¼ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phiegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitia crosp, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your truggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Pt. Wayne, ind.

SNELL BICYCLES SPECIAL PRICE $50 Wheel $42.50 White Star Cycle Co.

opyright, 1919, by the McClure News paper Syndicate.)

If who plan enterprises that require ideepread support. The sun is in a place most favorable o men and women who wield power influence. Buring this sway they are upposed to be friendly and helpful. Under this rule they who seek positical office or public behefits should be successful, for they have kindly stars to guide them.

This should be a helpful direction for all who wield the power that gives final decree, whether is high political office or in judicial position, but Uranus presage temporary misjudgment of even resticated.

Persons whose birthdate it is should beware of litigation and quarreling in the coming year. Those who are employed will be promoted.

Children born on this day are likely to be clever and talented, but hasty in temper. These subjects of Pisces often are unusual mathematicians.

LEMON JUICE WHITENS SKIN

Girls! Make beauty lotion that wear the closks of truth, reform and altruism.

Women will be prominent in many national movements. They will sit in places of judges and lawmakers. They will cause the solution of many industrial problems, it is prophesied. The sun is friendly to them.

Among the inventions that will be successful is one of an airpiane that will make a great name to an inventor.

Neglect to Tell You sionally That Still Loves

You Blame Memphis?

For going wild over the wonderful combination that has been responsible for the remarkable born bardment of the Majestic No. 2 this week? We refer, of course, to

ANITA STEWART

"Virtuous Wives"

And How Have Memphis Amusement-Goers Been Rewarded

Seeing ANITA STEWART "come back" after a year's absence more charming and fascinating than ever. Enjoying the "cut-ups" of "Virtuous Wives."

Seeing "male crocodiles" in action—and the other creatures of New York society so entertainingly visualized from OWEN JOHNSON'S 2,000,000 edition novel. It has been a most enjoyable week and when Miss Stewart and the "Virtuous Wives" say farewell Thursday night we're going to tell Miss Stewart that she has captivated Memphis completely. You bet we will!

MAJESTIC NO. 2, (Opp. Hotel Gayoso) TODAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY ADMISSION 25c

COMING FRIDAY, SATURDAY

VIRGINIA PEARSON in "THE LOVE AUCTION"

Clara Kimball Young

"Cheating Cheaters" From the World-Famous Stage Production.

RAN ON BROADWAY FOR TWO YEARS. A PLAY OF THRILLS AND LOVE.

The wonderful cast includes Anna Q. Nillson, Jack Holt, Tully-Marshall, Frank Campeau and Edwin Stevers.

TODAY AND WEDNESDAY LAST TWO DAYS AT NEW MAJESTIC NO. 1 (Next to Hotel Gayoso)

COMING THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY PRISCILLA DEAN in "THE WILD CAT OF PARIS"

OLD MAJESTIC NO. 1 (Bet. Union and Monroe), TODAY LAST DAY BESSIE BARRISCALE in "A TRICK OF FATE"

A Story of Paris' Swell Cafes and the Underworld.

COMING WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY - GLADYS LESLIE in "FORTUNE'S CHILD"